

Bricklayer

Level: 2

Duration: 27 months

Bricklayers lay bricks, blocks, and other building components in mortar to construct and repair walls, foundations, partitions, and arches.

Apprenticeship overview

Core skills, knowledge and behaviours you will learn

- Health and safety regulations and COSHH
- Interpreting drawings and specifications
- Setting out and constructing cavity walls
- Mixing mortar and applying various joint finishes
- Efficient use of resources and waste management

Where you might work

- New-build housing sites
- Commercial developments
- Renovation and restoration projects
- Domestic extensions

Typical job roles

- Bricklayer
- Blocklayer

Good to know

Work is almost entirely outdoors and physically demanding

You will often work as part of a "gang" of bricklayers

Requires a high level of manual dexterity and attention to detail

Visit: keighleycollege.ac.uk/apprenticeships

Call: 01535 685 035

Email: apprenticeships@keighleycollege.ac.uk