

Adult Care Worker Apprenticeship

Level 2

15 months

Adult Care Workers support individuals with care needs to live safely and independently, helping them achieve personal goals while maintaining choice and control in their lives.

Apprenticeship overview

Working in adult care means making a positive difference to people facing physical, emotional, or intellectual challenges. Adult Care Workers and Personal Assistants support individuals to live independently and safely, helping them achieve personal goals and maintain choice and control. They may work in homes, care settings, or the community. The role requires compassion, communication, and a commitment to person-centred care. Key values include care, courage, competence, and respect. It's a rewarding career with excellent opportunities to grow while improving the lives of others every day.
