

Senior Healthcare Support Worker Apprenticeship

Level 3

27 months

Delivering expert, compassionate, and high-quality health and social care to diverse individuals.

Apprenticeship overview

Senior healthcare support workers are employed in the health and care sector across diverse settings, such as hospitals, community teams, care homes, hospices, and patients' homes. Their main role is to assist registered healthcare professionals in delivering high-quality, compassionate care. They carry out clinical, therapeutic, or diagnostic duties under either direct or indirect supervision. These workers play a vital role in supporting patient care and ensuring services run smoothly. As part of their role, they will complete a specific occupational specialism, depending on the needs of their workplace and the requirements of the healthcare setting they work in.
